Cincinnati ToolBank Welcomes New Board Members

CINCINNATI, OH - February 28, 2017 - The Cincinnati ToolBank is pleased to welcome new board members Jeremy Michaels, with the Al Neyer and Jim Lamar, from The Home Depot to its roster. Jeremy and Jim were both highly recommended by founding board members Jim Neyer with Al Neyer & Paul Haitzsch from The Home Depot who have both stepped down from the board.

The Cincinnati ToolBank Board of Directors and Executive Director, Kat Pepmeyer says, “We are thrilled to have Jeremy & Jim join our team. We have been very strategic about onboarding new board members and both bring a passion for the mission in addition to their invaluable skillsets to the organization. We anticipate a very exciting and impactful year in 2017!”

The Cincinnati Community ToolBank is a nonprofit tool lending program that serves charitable organizations by putting high-quality tools in the hands of the volunteers who are planting trees, repairing seniors’ roofs, landscaping public spaces, and more, guaranteeing that every volunteer is equipped with the tools they need to get the job done. ToolBank’s resources empower all nonprofit organizations to perform larger, more ambitious, and more frequent service projects in the community.

About the Cincinnati ToolBank

The Cincinnati ToolBank is the fourth affiliate of ToolBank USA, the parent organization of the new national network of ToolBanks. The growing networks of ToolBank affiliates are modeled after the highly successful Atlanta Community ToolBank, which has served greater Atlanta’s charitable sector for more than 25 years. Membership is free and once an agency has completed the application process, they can then check out tools online in one-week increments for up to eight weeks at a time for a small handling fee equivalent to 3% of the tool retail value. By housing, maintaining, and lending tools to charitable organizations ToolBanks enable nonprofit agencies to be more efficient, productive and to complete more skilled volunteer projects.

The Cincinnati ToolBank is accepting donations to help fund the tool lending program. For more information about the Cincinnati ToolBank or how you can support its community efforts, please call Kat Pepmeyer at 513-246-0015
